

The Cadi Mountains

The Natural Park Cadí-Moixeró and the Valley of Cerdanya are both spectacular places to enjoy rambles, trekking, cycling, plant studies, mushroom picking, and to see chamois or bearded vultures...

In the surrounding area you can also discover St. James path, the trail of the Cathars, the Romanesque churches of the twelfth century, rural museums, craft workshops...

The county has a huge variety of leisure activities: hot air balloon flights, horse-riding, rafting or kayaking, hot spring baths, freshwater fishing...
